About London

London is the political, economic and cultural capital of England, and its world category tour attractions are known across the world. It is a leading Global City. London is considered as a world cultural capital. It is the world's most-visited city as measured by international arrivals. The Greater London space is exploding with attractions for guests of all ages. Historic gardens, historic buildings, museums, London Bridge, Palace and The London eye.

The Roman engineers referred the town as Londinium on the Thames River within the year AD 43. The town was attacked and destroyed. Then the Romans restored the city as London. The name Londinium then 'London' came from the Indo-Hittite of the traditional Britons within the year AD 61.

London is the center of the planet – and a world in one town, with a wealth of various cultures and communities across the capital, there are three hundred languages and culinary art from over seventy countries. Whereas English is the official language, many European languages are terribly wide spoken in and around London. Given the scale of the massive doctrine population, several different languages are utilized in standard of living.
