About Environmental Microbiology Summit

Scope and importance: Environmental and Public Health Microbiologists explore the conceptual applications of ecological aspects microorganisms such as algae, bacteria, fungi, protist and viruses to develop and enhance the quality vitamins, enzymes, beverages and food products also it is obvious that microbial activity has a great part to play in the continuing maintenance of conditions suitable for other forms of life on this planet.

Environmental and Public Health Microbiologists contribute significantly in environmental, medical, clinical, diagnostics, resource management and healthcare sciences like antimicrobials, environmental toxicology, recycling or biological treatment of waste, biotechnical and health to enhance the standards of various aspects of living beings, by investigating the natural resources, and to find out new things and factors which are related to renewable energy, agriculture and etc.

Abstract Submission Topics

- Soil environment and Microbial Activity
- Plant Microbiology and Plant Pathology
- Agricultural Microbiology and Veterinary Microbiology
- Microbial Interactions and Associations
- Microbial Habitats and Extreme Environments
- Water Microbiology and Marine Microbiology
- Waste Management and Pollution control
- Applied Environmental Microbiology
- Environmental Toxicology and Pharmacology
- Microbial Physiology and Metabolism
- Microbiota, Microbiome and Biofilms
- Microbial Ecology and Evolution
- Pharmaceutical Microbiology and Antimicrobial Resistance
- Food and Environmental Microbiology
- Environmental Epidemiology and Infectious Diseases
- Public Health Microbiology, Hospital and Healthcare Management
- Ethics and Policies in Environmental Applications
- Microbial Biogeochemical Cycles and Geomicrobiology
- Microbiological Methods and Techniques
- Environmental Biotechnology
- Environmental Molecular Microbiology and Genomics

Abstract submission opens : September 10, 2018 | Registration opens: October 01, 2018
Deadlines for Abstracts: Aug 09, 2019 | Deadlines for Registrations: Aug 09, 2019

Call for Abstracts

The Environmental and Public Health Microbiology Conference invites abstracts related to the new scientific research in all the fields of Environmental Microbiology, Soil Microbiology, Toxicology and Public Health Microbiology. Registrants are invited to submit an abstract for consideration for oral and poster presentation. In general we encourage more specific to the current research fields representing innovation and recent technologies. Abstracts received will be reviewed by scientific committee from aspirants and categorized as speaker talks and poster presentations.

Why to join ?

- Meet Experts & Influencers Face to Face
- Networking Opportunities
- Learning In a New Space
- New Technologies
- Greater Focus
- Have Energy of Like-Minded Individuals
- Investing on Yourself & finally have Fun!

Develop Networking with.....

- Industry leaders
- Product scientists
- Development managers
- C-level executive
- Academicians
- Environmental Microbiology research departments

Meet your “Subject Matter Expert” (SME)

Subject Matter Experts will guide you in current Research & development. They help you in research queries, content, identify the objectives, and ensure your research scientifically acceptable.

Workshop/ Interactive Sessions

Workshop sessions involve extensive interaction between presenters and participants around an idea or hands-on experience of a practice. These sessions may also take the form of a crafted panel, staged conversation, dialogue or debate – all involving substantial interaction with the audience.

Round table Discussions

The right conference can be a game changer for your research and professional career. More importantly, the Round table conversation brings the experts networking and create the goldmine of opportunities.
