About PetroConnect 2019

It gives us a profound pleasure to welcome you to Global Meet on Petroleum and Natural Gas (PetroConnect-2019), which is scheduled to be held in Melbourne, Australia during November 20-22, 2019. PetroConnect-2019 will provide a premier platform for result-oriented discussions on petroleum technology, energy policy, and natural gas. The conference brings together Energy Industry leaders, Academic Deans, Department Directors, Senior Government Officials and top executives across the globe to lead the conversation in exploring greatest opportunities. The theme of our conference is “Connecting the Petroleum: Alpha to Omega” and sessions have been designed to offer holistic approach to address current issues in the field of Petroleum and Natural gas.

We convene to acknowledge that the oil and gas industry is facing various challenges to achieve technological innovation and also to provide a platform to explore how we can accelerate the development, advanced technologies in oil and gas, crude oil investments in the research development, competitive economies and deployment of latest technologies. Collaborating with PetroConnect offers a unique opportunity to be aware of the best practices and solutions.

Australia is a multi-cultural country, which is a melting pot of a variety of ethnicities and welcomes all nations. It is the only country in the world that covers a whole continent and is also the biggest island in the world.

Melbourne, one of the biggest cities in Australia is a great place to host the most spectacular cultural, scientific and business events. It is also the capital town of the State of Victoria, Australia. The city displays multifaceted diversity in terms of culture, food, music and is really unique. It is filled with attractions like Royal Botanic Gardens Victoria - Melbourne Gardens, Queen Victoria Market, National Gallery of Victoria, Melbourne Star Observation Wheel, Eureka Skydeck 88 Admission, Sea Life Melbourne Aquarium Admission etc.
