About Vienna

Vienna is the federal capital and largest city of Austria and one of the nine states of Austria. Vienna is Austria's primary city, with a population of about 1.8 million (2.6 million within the metropolitan area, nearly one third of Austria's population), and its cultural, economic, and political centre. It is the 7th-largest city by population within city limits in the European Union. The city is located in the eastern part of Austria and is close to the borders of the Czech Republic, Slovakia, and Hungary.

Vienna is considered as the city of music and city of dreams due to its musical legacy and the world's first psycho-analyst. The architectural ensembles with the style of Romanesque ruprechtskirche and baroque karlskirche, baroque castles, gardens, schobrunn palace, monuments and parks are the historical center of Vienna. Vienna is well known for the high quality of life and main center for education and home to many universities, colleges and gymnasium schools. Football is the major sports and wiener schnitzel (cutlet of pork or veal) is the famous food of Vienna. In 2001, the city centre was designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In July 2017 it was moved to the list of World Heritage in Danger.

Vienna has an exuberant and immense range of social attractions. Regardless of whether established or trial theater, film or move celebrations, musical drama or operetta, or displays and shows - regardless of when you come and to what extent you stay, there is certain to be something energizing for you to find. Or on the other hand, if your tastes are not exactly so socially refined, at that point visit one of Vienna's well-known cafés or conventional wine bars ("Heurige") and work your way through celebrated culinary specialties. Wet your hunger!
