About Barcelona

Spain's second largest and definitely most cosmopolitan city and one of the Mediterranean's busiest sea ports. Barcelona is the capital of Catalonia, which is a region of Spain with its own linguistic is Catalan and its own culture and character. Barcelona offers the best of both worlds, situated on the Costa Brava on the Spanish Mediterranean coast, the city gently rises up from the coastline through the city and up into a range of wooded hills. Famous for breaking ground art, architecture and avant-garde chefs; the city eclipses many other for its creativity and forward thinking. Barcelona is a dynamic, open Mediterranean city. It's the perfect city to relax, stroll around and enjoy its unique way of life. Barcelona offers so much to the cultural visitor, there is so much to see, something new and interesting awaits around every corner. Gothic architecture, the famous Las Ramblas avenue, Gaudi's GüelParc and the unfinished LaSagradaCathedral, the old Raval quarter, La Ribera and La Barceloneta, a beachside ravel of corridor style streets where you can find some fantastic local restaurants and bars, away from the typical tourist area.
