Dermatology is a specialization that focuses on researching, diagnosing and maintaining the health of the skin, scalp, hair and nails. Skin is the largest organ of the body and unlike other organs, skin is functionally as well as aesthetically important. This is why dermatology and cosmetology go hand-in-hand and has been the hugest industry in the market for years.

Dermatology is one industry which treats people of all ages. The American Academy of Dermatology (AAD) estimated that 1 in 3 people visit dermatologists and 1 in every 4 is affected with some form of skin disease every year. This has resulted in a growing need for effective dermatological techniques and devices. Strong desire among men and women to retain youthful appearances has groomed the cosmetics industry globally. The Indian cosmeceutical and cosmetics industry has an overall market standing of USD 6.5 billion from a global market of USD 274 billion. It is expected to grow to USD 20 billion by 2015 at a compounded rate of 25 per cent.

The global cosmetic products market was valued at USD 532.43 billion in 2017, and is expected to reach a market value of USD 805.61 billion by 2023. This statistic shows the market size of the natural and organic beauty industry worldwide in 2016, with a forecast to 2024. The UK dermatology devices market has been segmented on the basis of end use into hospitals, clinics, and others. The hospitals segment held the largest market share in 2018 owing to greater demand for, and availability and usage of advanced dermatological equipment in hospital settings.

Globally, there were 20 million aesthetic procedures performed from 2014-2015. Cosmetic surgery is a major driver of medical tourism. In the UK, there were 50,000 cosmetic surgery procedures performed in 2013-2014. Surgical aesthetic procedures account for 10% of the cosmetic procedures in the UK, and non-surgical techniques constitute the remaining 90%.

Edinburgh is the throne of Scottish government and is the second largest financial centre in the United Kingdom. Steeped in history and a host to a variety of festivals throughout the year, Edinburgh is proudly known as a centre of excellence in the fields of energy, medicine, life sciences, informatics, electronics, technology and creative industries. Edinburgh is ranked 35 in the world ranking of international conference destinations by the International Congress and Convention Association (ICCA).

The capital of Scotland makes an unforgettable impression with its historic, hilly landscape atop a series of extinct volcanos. Edinburgh is home to more Michelin-starred restaurants than any other part of the UK outside London. Edinburgh is perfect for festival lovers with 11 major festivals happening every year. Edinburgh is well linked to the rest of the UK by road, rail and air. The quickest option to get to Edinburgh from London is to fly, which takes 1 hour 10 minutes. Not only a capital city, Edinburgh is also the leading festival city in the world, home to the phenomenal summer festivals, and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Packed with medieval tenements, narrow wynds of the Old Town and the sweeping elegance of the Georgian New Town, there's no question that Edinburgh deserves its reputation as one of the most stunning and enthralling cities in the world. With an unparalleled range of events, fantastic shopping, top-class dining, including four Michelin star restaurants, a fabulous bar and café culture, vibrant nightlife, a varied arts scene, relaxing spas and beautiful green spaces to unwind at, holidaying in Edinburgh is a pure pleasure. Add to this the spectacular surroundings of the majestic Lothians, and you've got a recipe for an unforgettable break.

The Queen's Gallery at the Palace of Holyroodhouse hosts a programme of changing exhibitions from the Royal Collection. At the Palace of Holyroodhouse, visitors can explore 14 magnificent historic and State Apartments, the romantic ruins of the 12th-century Holyrood Abbey and remarkable royal gardens, all with a complimentary multimedia tour in ten languages. Best known as the home of Mary, Queen of Scots, the Palace was the setting for many dramatic episodes in her short reign as featured in the 2019 Universal Pictures movie Mary, Queen of Scots. Today, the State Apartments are used regularly by The Queen for State ceremonies and official entertaining. Scotland's throbbing night-life centre, Edinburgh, "the Athens of the North", is also a feast for the mind and the senses, playing host to great restaurants, shops and an unequalled programme of city festivals throughout the year. Hogmanay, the Scottish New Year, kicks off the festivities, which culminate in the high summer with the Tattoo, the International and the Fringe, amongst many others.
