

Workshop on Procurement under General Financial Rules 2017 & Government E-Marketplace (GeM) by

All India Management Association (AIMA)
September 26-27, 2019, New Delhi, India

Background:

The GFRs (General Financial Rules) are rules and orders dealing with matters involving public finances. The revised GFR-2017 aims to provide a framework within which an organization manages its business in a financially prudent manner without compromising its flexibility to deal with varied situations. The GFR-2017 enables an improved, efficient and effective framework of fiscal management while providing the necessary flexibility to facilitate timely delivery of services.

GeM (Government e-marketplace) – As per rule 149 of the GFR-2017 procurement of Goods and Services from GeM became mandatory for Ministries/Departments of Central Government. GeM has its own set of procedures for the procurement of Goods & Services available on GeM. Keeping this in mind, AIMA announces workshop on GeM and GFR 2017 covering the role of GFR with regards to Procurement of Good and services, E Procurement system and Nuisances of GeM.
