

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON
DIABETES & ENDOCRINOLOGY

26TH-27TH NOV 2019

JAKARTA, INDONESIA

Dear Hopefuls...

Greetings,

BioLEAGUES Worldwide, cordially invites the aspiring researchers of scientific community across the world to "International Conference on Diabetes and Endocrinology", going to be held on November 26-27, 2019 at Jakarta, Indonesia with the theme of "Unfolding the Concepts of Diabetes and Endocrinology". Diabetes mellitus, a metabolic syndrome, is one among the greatest challenge in terms of healthcare management in most of the developed and developing countries of the modern world. Prevalence of Diabetes is 4% worldwide which indicates more than 140 million individuals are affected which may raise up to 300 million by 2025, according to a survey. The prominent swing in the lifestyle and diet system makes the individuals to gear up to face this issue. The major complications of diabetes include neuropathy, nephropathy, retinopathy, cardiovascular diseases, obesity, hormonal changes, imbalanced metabolism, suggested medications and strategic plans for management of diabetes are the key features to be considered in this conference in depth. In this needy and tough time, the demand for creating a single platform to bring all the aspiring minds of academic experts, research scholars, diabetologists, scientists, endocrinologists, nutritionists, medical physicians, industrialists are sky high. Hence, We, BioLEAGUES worldwide, is organizing this International Event to fulfil the expectations of the scientific community. We are very sure that, the target audience will witness the mind-blowing oral presentations, technical poster presentations, video lectures and exhibitions related Diabetes and its management.
