TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

The Eiffel Tower is an evergreen landmark in Paris that is a must-visit in any season. It's the spectacular views from the top that keep changing. In February, the grey weather accentuates the timelessness of Paris and turns it into a winter wonderland.

Undoubtedly, one must pay their admirations to Mona Lisa on a visit to Paris. The Louvre Museum is the home of the renowned painting and 7,500 other paintings, which make it the world's biggest art museum.

Entertain your partner and relish the banks of the Seine, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, on this unbelievable Seine Dinner Cruise. The excited batobus will keep you comfortable for the entire 1.15-hour long cruise and the three course dinner with a glass of wine.

Step into the mystic world of Disney with a visit to the Disneyland Paris and re-experience the childhood remembrances of your desired characters. Get engrossed in adventures ranging from musicals, live shows to frozen themed decorations and parade.

Palace of Versailles, the Royal Palace of the French Monarchy, it is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. While you may not see the Gardens in all their splendor, the bare stillness of the estate contrasts with the riches inside the Palace.

One of the most enduring symbols of Paris is Notre-Dame de Paris, a Roman Catholic cathedral is located on the eastern half of the Ile de la Cité. It is broadly considered as one of the finest examples of French Gothic architecture in Europe and France.

Arc de Triomphe, a massive triumphal arch in Paris, one of the world's best-known celebratory monuments. It is an iconic symbol of French national identity and took 30 years to build.

The Latin Quarter of Paris is located on the left bank of the Seine, around the Sorbonne. Known for its student life, lively atmosphere and bistros, the Latin Quarter is the home to many higher education institutions, such as the Ecole Normale Supérieure.
