Paris, France's capital is a city of love, city of lights and an International Melting Pot. Paris has many different faces, it's a city rich with culture, art, design, beauty and history. It is the most visited tourist destination in the world, with over 45 million visitors annually, it is quite easy to arrive in Paris with huge expectations: of grand vistas and of budding writers in every café. Among the 2-million-strong population in Paris, around 20% are immigrants from all over the world making Paris one of the biggest multi-cultural centers in Europe. This meeting of cultures and cuisines means that Paris is always on the cutting edge in the worlds of food, art, music and fashion.

A week, a month, a year is not long enough to uncover all of Paris' treasures. But it would be a lifetime well spent when once visited Paris. This city is populated by people, architecture, restaurants and nightlife that will seduce you and make you never want to leave.

On all levels – historical, architectural, and cultural – there is something all about Paris that will fascinate you.

“A fool is one who admires other cities without visiting Paris.”

– Francesco Petrarca

Health care: Health care and emergency medical service within the City of Paris are provided by the help of publique – Hôpitaux de Paris (AP-HP), that employs quite 90,000 people in 44 hospitals. it's the most important hospital system in Europe. Paris is that the department with the very best proportion of highly educated people and has retained its importance as a centre for education, libraries and archives.
