Regional Clean Sea Organisation

RECSO is an oil industry co-operative organisation functioning on the concept of "mutual aid". RECSO is a Non-Profit Environmental Organisation with genuine objective to accomplish a "Cleaner and Safer Environment".

RECSO was officially set up in 1972 by 13 founder members. The oil companies in the region at that time recognized a need for collective response to major oil pollution incidents and thus came together to achieve a common objective - protecting the Gulf's resources from oil pollution.

In addition to arrangements for mutual aid in times of oil spill emergencies, provision was also made for reimbursement of costs incurred by member companies in responding to oil spills originating from another member's installation or facilities.

Vision

To be the Region's Leading Organization in achieving oil pollution-free Environment within RECSO Regional seas

Mission

-  To provide its members with the resources, knowledge and skills to prevent, prepare for and effectively respond to oil spills within the RECSO area.
-  To be the Region's Reference Authority and consultative body for matters related to sharing best practices and knowledge of offshore oil spills prevention, preparedness and response.

RECSO EnviroSpill

RECSO EnviroSpill 2022 provides a dedicated platform for professionals from major industries to discuss, debate and share knowledge, expertise and experience on different technologies in the field of oil spill and environment preservation.

The event will primarily focus on issues pertaining to the cleaner Gulf seas. The event provides a global platform to discuss potential solutions and researches that will highlight current science, management issues and new directions benefiting the industry and region as a whole.

EnviroSpill Attendees

The first edition of EnviroSpill 2019 has brought the most prominent and esteemed speakers and audience from all around the globe on a solitary dais.

This year 2022, the conference brings together a variety of audiences from different sectors to share and learn new technologies and methods to prevent, prepare & protect the environment from Oil spill.

CXO/Senior Management

As an oil & gas sector and Marine industry leader, I've put a lot of thought into prevention, preparedness and response against oil spill. Speaking at RECSO EnviroSpill 2022 gives me an opportunity to grow my network. It provides me with an opportunity to connect with other leaders and implementers who have introduced new, advanced and affective initiatives that can mitigate the alarming ill-effects of spill on environment, Gulf-Seas and Marine life.

Commercial Audience

I belong to the industry and represent the product/service provider community in the space of prevention, preparedness and response to oil spill and its consequential ill effects. I believe RECSO EnviroSpill 2022 will give me the absolute platform to showcase my product/services. As I will enjoy getting in front of the audience at RECSO EnviroSpill 2022, I will also get an opportunity to express my thoughts on industry's advancements and I can help them getting their hands on the understanding of protecting the gulf and marine life from oil spill and it's after effects.

Departmental Head/Technical Audience

While I am a stakeholder to this industry I feel a strong inclination towards the case-studies, research data, business opportunities and international policies. RECSO EnviroSpill 2022 is an opportunity for me to address all my interest areas and also gain feedback about our initiatives from the industry stakeholders. By being a part of the community, I know that I will meet other like-minded peers and I'm going to come away better equipped to tackle these abrupt circumstances.

The Gulf

Since the event is being hosted in Bahrain, it will give me a great opportunity to network with the thought leaders of the leading oil and gas companies of the world. I'll also benefit hearing from them about their initiatives and experiences on the subject of oil spill prevention, preparedness and response.
